Green Building Publisher Now Offering eBooks

Ecotone Publishing Partners with EcoBrain to Better Serve the Sustainable Design and Construction Field

Seattle, WA; May 30, 2008 - Ecotone Publishing today announced that select titles will soon be available as eBooks through EcoBrain.com - the only specialty retailer of downloadable eBooks, audio, and video titles focused on green living. Customers can now easily download some of Ecotone's titles 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – anywhere in the world. Customers can look inside our books, with EcoBrain's easy-to-use previews. All content on EcoBrain is in downloadable, digital format, so consumers can buy green books with zero shipping costs and only a minimal amount of expended energy.

The era of digital delivery is here and Ecotone Publishing aspires to be at the forefront. We are pleased to have teamed with EcoBrain to offer our customers an alternative format when purchasing environmental design publications. "While we are continuing to publish books to the highest environmental standards, we recognize and respect that our customers may, in some cases, be looking for paperless alternatives that the eBook format provides." said Michael Berrisford, Chief Operations Officer of Ecotone.

Ecotone Publishing and EcoBrain.com will be offering The Dumb Architects Guide to Glazing Selection for download absolutely free during the weeks of June 30th to July 13th. Be sure to visit www.EcoBrain.com, and download this specialty book.

About Ecotone

Founded and operated by green building experts, Ecotone Publishing is the first book publisher to focus solely on green architecture and design. Headquartered on Bainbridge Is., WA, the company is dedicated to meeting the growing demand for authoritative and accessible books on sustainable design, materials selection and building techniques. Ecotone institutes a variety of green strategies, including the printing of its books on recycled content paper, the use of recyclable packaging, eBook options and supporting employees telecommuting from home offices. An industry leader, Ecotone is the first American publishing company to fully adopt carbon neutrality through streamlined operations and the purchase of carbon credits, in order to offset its own contributions to climate change.
